In this 12 day tour we will cover the southeastern coast of India. Tamil Nadu is a region with an inherent rich heritage. Majestic temples with intricately carved walls that tell the tales of glorious legacy of Dravidian culture that flourished here. Also visit Kerala, which is bestowed with by a bounty of natural beauty- rippling waves of Arabian Sea, serene backwaters, lots of greenery, aroma of spices. Kathakali dance is one who can describe Kerala in one line. Because of its sheer beauty Kerala is fondly called “Gods Own Country”

India this extraordinary country, with its billion plus population and bubbling melting pot of multi-faith customs and festivals, presents travelers with an enigmatic array of unique experiences that will remain etched in their minds long after departing India’s shores. Spirituality is an integral thread in the intricate tapestry that is India. Whether in solemn temple ceremony or convivial religious festival, all things sacred are passionately pursued by Indians from all walks of life. Several lifetimes would be required to explore all of the country’s cultural and historical legacies.
